

TRAINING OF TRAINERS FOUNDATION COURSE

PJRB SPARC invites researchers and professionals to its upcoming ToT foundational course in 'Conservation Agriculture (As defined by FAO, United Nations)'

FAO endorsed Conservation Agriculture enhances biodiversity & natural processes above and below the ground, which add to water and nutrient use efficiency and to improved and sustained crop production.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS: • Principles of FAO Conservation Agriculture • Global case studies of practice • Site Visit to Naturalized Agriculture farm (Indian adaptation of CA) • Data Collection and comparative analysis • Financial analysis • Practice session in field setting at demo farm • Global networks, Associations & Resources for Conservation Agriculture

TRAINING DIRECTOR: Gupreet Singh Saini, Director PJRB-SPARC - M.Sc. Agriculture (PAU) and MBA with rich field experience

OTHER ATTRACTIONS: • Village homestay with cultural immersion and local cuisine • Interaction with village youth and farmers • Yoga and Water Meditation

COURSE CALENDAR : September 11th -14th 2018 (4 days- Program schedule in booklet)

VENUE: RM Bhargava Conference Room, PJRB School of Profitable Agriculture and Resource Conservation, Ghugial Village (near Hoshiarpur City), Punjab.

COURSE FEE: INR 9,800/- (includes accommodation on twin-sharing basis, food and transportation from Hoshiarpur Railway Station/Bus Stand/Adampur Airport to PJRBSPARC)

LAST DATE TO APPLY: August 31st, 2018 (Hurry! as the course has limited seats)

For registration and queries, please contact:

Sarthak Anand, trainings@pjrbsparc.org, +91 9873053096

Gurpreet Saini, Director@pjrbsparc.org, +91 7009097094

