

Thames Rivers Trust
Thames Rivers Trust

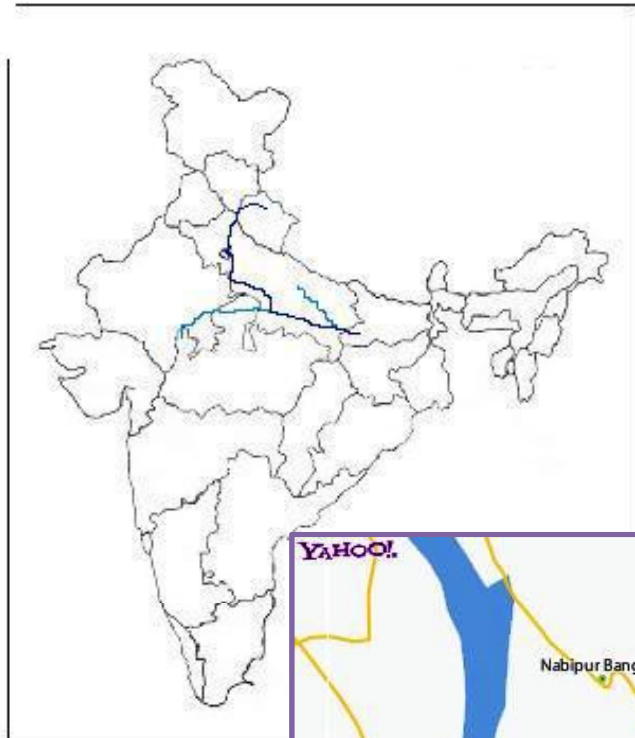

GURU GARGACHARYA YAMUNA JAN KALYAN SOCIETY, GADAYA MATHURA

1. Kharadi G
2. Katapath G
3. Kanalsi G
4. Ramra G
5. Ovah G
6. Gadaya G

6-Gadaya Grid

Gadaya Village

Key features of the Grid

- Situated on river bank near the Farah town of Mathura district of Utter Pradesh
- Known for Guru Gargacharya temple (part of braj Yatra)
- Functional old wells in the village
- Down stream of the Mathura refinery
- Near CIRG (Goat Research Institute) Farah
- Start of ravine formation in the river

Waste management

- 2 Dust bins in temple complex
- Ecosan toilets work in progress

Energy use

- 20 Solar lights in use
- Establishment of Urja kendra under process
- High demand for solar applications

Catchment restoration

Plantation

2011- 700 Samplings
2012- 500 Samplings

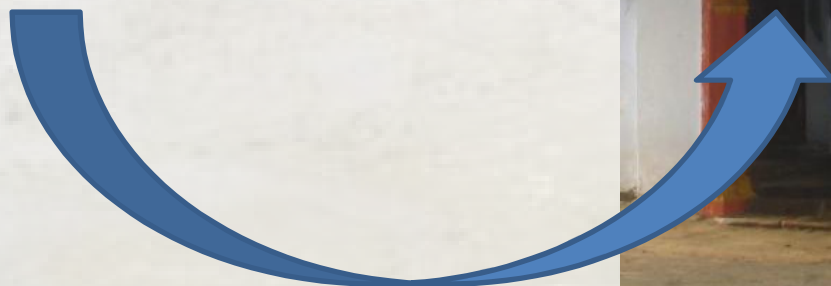

River monitoring

- Water testing
- Biodiversity Survey

Restoration of temple

Restoration of wells

Fencing of temples complex for plantation

Yamuna Eco Scholar

Capacity Enhancement

Organised workshop on Bee-keeping and other livelihood options, 7-9 September 2012

Thank You