

“The Excluded in Relief and Rehabilitation”

Survey of post-flood situation of Dalit victims’ access to relief and rehabilitation in Andhra Pradesh floods of 2009

Commissioned by

National Dalit Watch & Dalit Watch-Andhra Pradesh

National Dalit Watch- National Campaign on Dalit Human Rights

Dalit Watch-Andhra Pradesh

The Dalit Watch-AP is a coalition comprised of grassroots organisation working on issues pertaining to Dalit rights and empowerment. This includes the Sakshi Human Rights Watch, Dalit Bahujan Sramik Union AP (DBSU), Mamidipudi Venkatarangaiya Foundation (MVF), Confederation of Voluntary Associations (COVA), Bhavita, PARA, OOTA, ROADS, SAFE, PREACHERS, SPEAR, and Indira Mahila Chaitanya Mandali, as an immediate response to the September-October 2009 floods in Andhra Pradesh, that left millions affected. Though this disaster was not 'casteist' in its destruction, the bitter fact is that the Dalits and Tribes, with their women, children, disabled and aged were the most vulnerable of the vulnerable. Stories covered by the media on the subject further motivated us towards a planned intervention regarding the implementation of relief operations and schemes. Hard facts of instances of discrimination and exclusion caused the formation of this network in AP to defend the rights of the Dalits in disasters. It was named Dalit Watch-AP, and decided to work under the aegis of National Dalit Watch (NCDHR).

National Dalit Watch

The National Dalit Watch (NDW) is an initiative of the National Campaign on Dalit Human Rights (NCDHR) which has emerged from an informed recognition of the rampant discrimination and exclusion faced by Dalit communities during disaster response and mitigation. Building on the experiential base of NCDHR in exposing and countering exclusion in some of the major disasters of our times (Tsunami in 2004, Bihar Floods in 2007 and 2008), NDW has been working towards developing tools and methods to identify, expose and document this form of discrimination. NDW enables Dalit rights organizations, local activists and the community leadership in various parts of the country to effectively monitor discrimination and exclusion during disasters. Through advocacy and mobilization the NDW works towards instituting a policy environment that recognizes such discrimination and defining entitlements of survivors in a manner that makes the state accountable. NDW at present has its operation in Bihar, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka and Assam.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We dedicate this report to the survivors of the devastating floods of September-October 2009, particularly of the Kurnool and Mahaboobnagar districts for their undying cooperation and assistance to the surveyors in accomplishing the study within the stipulated time frame, by agreeing to share their formidable account of floods in the wake of tough and unspeakable circumstances.

We thank all the concerned departments and authorities for cooperating with the representatives of DW-AP during the collection process of related Government Orders that helped in designing the survey questionnaire.

We also thank our surveyors for having stayed at the villages and collecting the evidences for the left out in relief and rehabilitation in AP after 2009 floods, and the representatives of Dalit Watch AP for their onsite assistance to the surveyors.

We also extend our special thanks to Oxfam India and Cordaid, both having their interventions in emergencies, for enabling us to undertake this study.

We acknowledge deeply the tireless efforts of DW-AP comprised of grassroots organisations for their solidarity and unity in conducting the survey, without losing sight to the survey objective. Without their consolidated approach this would not have been possible.

Last but not the least; we appreciate and thank the team of National Dalit Watch-NCHDR for their valuable inputs and continuous support in designing the survey methodology, questionnaire and drafting of the final report.

I. FOREWORD

At the end of September 2009, sudden depressions in Bay of Bengal caused heavy rain fall in the catchment areas of Tungabhadra and Krishna rivers causing heavy flooding of both these rivers. This caused heavy flood in North Karnataka and the Rayalaseema region of AP. According to the official sources, over 13 lakh people were affected in five districts of Andhra Pradesh following unprecedented floods in Krishna river basin and have claimed 37 lives. This has been the heaviest flood in these rivers including River Krishna in more than 100 years (Source: As on October 7, 2009: Special Commissioner Relief, Government of A.P).

As many as 478 villages in 87 'mandals' have been severely hit in the last four days. The worst hit parts were of Kurnool and Mahaboobnagar districts of AP.

According to Bureau sources, in a memorandum addressed to the Prime Minister, Dr. Manmohan Singh, the State Chief Minister, Mr K. Rosaiah mentioned that the loss to agriculture and horticulture was estimated at Rs 1050 crore, animal husbandry (Rs. 250 crore), fisheries (Rs 100 crore) and housing (Rs 300 crore). The public infrastructure covering irrigation, roads, power and communication requires about Rs 10,000 crore and the rescue and relief operation another Rs 500 crore. The Andhra Pradesh Government urged the Central Government to treat it as a 'national calamity' and release Rs 6,000 crore for relief, rehabilitation and restoration works.

Taking into consideration above mentioned facts, Dalit Watch AP, with support from National Dalit Watch conducted a survey of 308 villages of the 565 affected villages of five districts of AP, namely, , Mahbubnagar, Nalgonda, Krishna and Guntur, from 20 to 26 October 2009. The survey was conducted to unearth the gaps in the government system of functioning during disasters and expose the shameful attitude of the local authorities whose primary responsibility is to ensure equitable and non-discriminatory approach in reaching out to the affected masses with rescue and relief measures. The study revealed that a majority of the Dalits from Mahaboobnagar district were the last to know about the calamity. They were also the last in getting relief and compensation, and being rehabilitated. Quite a few families migrated in search of livelihoods. In many villages, Dalits complained that SC colonies were the last to get relief material. NGO relief too was usurped by the upper castes. Many names went missing from the lists of victims' made by the officials, especially where the victims did not return to the village immediately. Officials refused to include them afterwards.

II. THE RATIONALE

The experience after all the past disasters and calamities is that the most vulnerable and marginalized Dalit communities and their women, children and aged were the people who were again the most affected and yet the discriminated in every aspect of the relief works: in identifying them as victims in the disaster, in evaluating their losses, and including them in the planning, monitoring and implementation of programmes for their future rehabilitation.

The insidious practice of discrimination against Dalits practiced day after day gets magnified even more when disasters strike. Their social and economic fragility, inability to anticipate, cope with or recuperate from the impact of disasters makes them increasingly susceptible to these horrendous disasters. Despite forming the highest ratio in deaths and property loss, Dalits remain the last to get relief and rehabilitation. Dalits earn their livelihood on a day to day basis with no back up mechanism. Any protracted lack of employment exposes them to the danger of starvation and ill health. Caste based social structure, practice of untouchability and a prejudiced mindset is a major reason for their low ownership of assets and access to quality infrastructure. Even at the times of disasters, the practice of untouchability keeps the poor Dalits from receiving the precious little offered by the state and civil society organisations. A study of the monsoon floods of 2007 in various parts of India showed that 60 percent of the dead were Dalits. These factors create additional and specific vulnerabilities on the Dalits in the context of disaster. Entrenched underdevelopment further weakens their survivability.

The study was conducted to figure out if Dalits received equal attention and care as did the upper caste people when the relief operations were underway; to check out whether the temporary shelters erected by the government have been helpful; to assess whether the compensation given for the losses suffered was sufficient; and also to explore the current situation in general, and the plight of women and children in particular.

III. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The second phase of the survey was conducted from 23rd February to 2nd March 2010, in Kurnool and Mahaboobnagar districts of Andhra Pradesh. 47 villages in Kurnool and 33 villages in Mahaboobnagar were covered. The survey is named, “The Excluded in Relief and Rehabilitation”. Of the total 1135 families surveyed, about 237 families belonging to SC and ST communities did not receive the immediate relief of essential commodities as per the CRF norms. About 452 SC and ST families did not receive compensation for the loss of clothing and household goods as per the prescribed Calamity Relief Fund norms. 288 families Dalit families were still awaiting compensation for the loss of livestock. 200 respondents belonging to the SC/ST communities had lost all their crops and agricultural land did not receive compensation or input subsidy. 391 respondents belonging to the SC/ST communities expressed that women suffered difficulties on account of the lack of proper sanitation facilities.

Of 102 families in Kurnool and Mahaboobnagar districts that were depending upon fishing for their livelihoods, 83 (81%) families still await the receipt of compensation to which they are entitled. The survey has thrown up numerous questions on the poor status of implementation of relief and rehabilitation package as per the CRF guidelines. Moreover, a look at the list of the families in the annexure shows that most of the members didn't have Job cards. Only the work of clearing of the slush from the streets, agriculture land took place for which only few were employed.

The reasons behind such negligence of Dalits in the entire relief and rehabilitation process was reported to be the lack of proper survey of Dalit colonies; lack of scientific and professional assessment of the damage caused by the floods; large-scale corruption especially at the local level; lack of people's knowledge of their entitlements; the immediate subsistence needs of the families due to which they couldn't pursue the authorities while caught up making both ends meet; and Dalits habitations being located in the low-lying areas, the officials skipped these areas.

It was pitiable to discover such lapses in the provision of relief and the appalling conditions of the marginalized awaiting the due compensation from the state even after 5 months of the floods. All this while, these survivors have been struggling to rebuild their shattered lives, trying to fend for themselves. The survey has thrown up numerous questions on the real status of implementation of relief and rehabilitation package as per the CRF guidelines.

Even though disasters are not caste biased in their nature of fury, yet, with the open discrimination practice against the dalits, one can dare to declare that Dalits and other marginalized sections are trampled under foot both by man and nature. The structurally rooted caste prejudices will never allow Dalits to come out of the fringes and choose safer location to reside. As the disasters occur, every agency, the government as well as non-government, go accumulating relief. Yet, after several months, and sometimes after years, the survivors are found to be living in the same misery all on their own. The promises made by the government fade with each passing day after the publicity given in the context of disasters. The cause of these disasters, and in this case, floods, always remains intact. The cause is never dealt with.

The facts discovered by the survey are a clear indication of the haphazard and even callous state response and relief mechanisms that are still impotent in overcoming the exclusionary mindset and attitude of the privileged masses, concerned authorities and society as a larger socialising institution.

IV. METHODOLOGY

Since Kurnool and Mahaboobnagar districts were worst hit by the fury of 2009 floods, it was decided to survey these districts to draw out a very specific content. Hence, this second phase survey of the October floods was conducted only in these two districts. The mandate was to collect very specific data.

Districts and families covered under the survey:

Sl. No.	District	No. of Mandals	No. of villages	No. of families covered
				SC	ST	BC	MI	OC	Total
				Mala	Madiga
1	Kurnool	9	42	84	381	17	39	6	3	530

a. Selection of volunteers and villages for survey

Having been equipped with the initial survey data of 565 villages, there was already clarity on the extent of damage and the status of Dalit victims in the two selected districts. In view of past experiences, decisions were taken to priorities villages, (i) where human loss had taken place, (ii) houses had been completely washed away, (iii) land and agriculture crop damage had been severe; and (iv) where communities from vulnerable sections were affected the most. Based on this criteria for selection of villages, 47 villages belonging to 9 mandals in Kurnool and 33 villages belonging to 8 mandals in Mahaboobnagar were finalized for the survey. Since the follow up to be made on the findings of the survey are very crucial, it was decided to identify such volunteers who were either already involved in the unionization of agricultural workers or interested in promoting the same among Dalits and other marginalized communities. Five such volunteers each from Kurnool and Mahaboobnagar districts were identified for the survey.

b. Capacity building of volunteers for effective data collection

A two-day training was organized for the identified volunteers, on 20th and 21st February 2010, to orient them for the survey. The training was focused on assessing the present situation of Dalits and in assisting them accessing the relief and rehabilitation packages; explanation of the questionnaire, identifying possible areas of difficulties during data collection and ways to overcome them, and the ideal attitude of the volunteers during data collection in the village. The recent Government orders that have come into force pertaining to the relief and rehabilitation packages for the flood victims were also discussed in conjunction with the strategies to be evolved with the communities for establishing a follow up mechanism until the relief and rehabilitation measures are completed. (For detailed minutes of the training please see Annexure 1)

c. Collection of all Government Orders (GOs) and guidelines related to Relief and Rehabilitation schemes

Before finalizing the survey questionnaire, the representatives of DW-AP visited all the concerned departments and authorities viz. the Commissioner of Disaster Management, the Deputy Director of Disaster Management, the Special Commissioner for State Disaster Management Authority. We met the senior officials of various departments: Disaster Management, Housing Corporation, Agriculture, Panchayati Raj, Women and Child Welfare, Fisheries Corporation and Animal Husbandry. The first survey report was shared with each of them and the rationale behind the proposed second survey was explained along with the expressed need to inculcate the content of the related GOs into the data collection format. An affirmative response was sought from all the departments and eventually, GOs were gathered and integrated into the survey format. The format was finalized with inputs received from National Dalit Watch and Dalit Watch-AP and people involved in the survey.

d. Data collection, Entry and Analysis

The activists visited the affected villages and met the people. They explained to them the government relief and rehabilitation package in support of flood affected families. The data was collected from all the selected villages as planned. The communities gave complete cooperation in furnishing the information required. During the data collection, representatives from NDW, DW-AP and DBSU-AP visited the field and provided insights to the volunteers. These visits were made to monitor the process of data collection and get direct knowledge of the existing level of implementation of the Relief and Rehabilitation measures. Subsequently, a package in MS access was developed to document the collected data with the help of a Dalit Software Engineer. During the process of data entry and data consolidation, a representation on behalf of the families who lost their family members in the floods and had not yet received any compensation were prepared. These representations were sent to the concerned authorities for immediate follow up action (See annexure 6)

V. THE FINDINGS

1. Relief operation

“The Prime Minister had on Friday announced Rs. 1,000 crore as advance assistance for Andhra Pradesh for relief and rehabilitation. He also assured that more aid would be provided and that money would not be a constraint for relief and rehabilitation works...”

The floods caused by the Krishna river killed 65 people and affected over 1.7 million people in five districts of Andhra Pradesh. The floods caused massive damage to public infrastructure, houses, agriculture and livestock. The initial estimates by the state government have put the damage at Rs. 12,666 crore. It sought an immediate assistance of Rs. 6,000 crore from the central government”.¹ (IANS)

If this was the amount of money coming in for immediate relief operations, then it would not be wrong to think as to where this sum went! The survey reveals the number of SC families that suffered for lack of elementary supplies. A news paper report mentioned that Kurnool district had the highest sale of luxury cars during this period. The same issue was echoed during discussions in the Andhra Pradesh Assembly.

a. Distribution of relief material

Non-receipt of the immediate essential supplies from the Government

Sl.No	Particulars	No. of families
		SC		ST	BC	MI	OC	Total

3	% families not received	15%	30%	15%	22%	13%	8%	26%

As per the CRF guidelines, each flood affected family should get prescribed quantum of essential commodities immediately. Yet, the survey revealed that the grant of prescribed relief was not that

Immediate relief as per CRF norms

1. Rice: 20kgs
2. Dal: 2 Kgs
3. Palm Oil : 2 kgs
4. Sugar: 2 kgs
5. Kerosene: 5 lts.
6. Tea leaves : 50 grams

¹ PM makes aerial survey of flood-hit Kurnool, Mahabubnagar, October 10, 2009

immediate as its announcement was. Of the total 1135 families surveyed, about 290 families have not received the immediate relief package and among these, 237 families belong to SC and ST communities. 82% of those who did not receive relief package were dalits. 32 per cent of SCs were denied immediate relief, making a mockery out of the CRF guidelines. In the absence of essential supplies, these families found it difficult to make both ends meet.

The reasons narrated by the respondents for not getting the relief material:

- The lack of awareness about the existing immediate relief package to which they are entitled ;
- Absence from the village during the enumeration while they were away searching for means of survival; &
- No visits made by the officials to their villages to distribute the relief material. (Detailed individual profile of specific cases as annexure 2)

b. Temporary sheds

The families that are given temporary tin shed by the government are suffering for want for basic amenities, especially toilets. They are worried that strong winds would blow away these weak shelters. This is a lot of suffering to these residents in the severe summer, this year due to the burning heat that is posing great health risk, especially for the aged, and infants. The women, aged, children and young girls face untold difficulties due to the absence of sanitation facilities in the vicinity of their camps and have to go to far off fields early in the morning before the sun rise.

2. Compensation

a. Assessment of various non-compensated cases:

➤ Compensation not received by kin of the deceased

The Chief Minister increased the ex-gratia amount to Rs. 200,000 (US$ 4,0 00) to the kin of the deceased and financial assistance to the victims.²

As per the Revenue Departments' (Disaster Management) instructions for Relief and Rehabilitation works in flood affected areas, the District Collectors

² SITUATION REPORT FLOODS IN ANDHRA PRADESH AND KARNATAKA
(Available at www.karmayog.org/redirect/stred.asp?docId=26289)

were requested to complete the distribution of relief work such as payment of Ex-gratia for the deceased persons, payment of Ex-gratia for Houses damaged, Clothing and Utensils and distribution of Rice and Kerosene. This work was to be completed at the earliest possible and not later than by 18th October, 2009.³ However, the depositions below uncover the complete reversal of what was instructed.

Of the total 1135 families surveyed, there were 12 families who lost their loved ones in the gushing and unceasing flood waters of September-October 2009. Of the 12 deceased, there were seven females and five males. Among the seven female members, four were 60 years and above. There was one minor girl and two young women aged 28 and 29 respectively. This indicated the vulnerability of women to death in times of such disasters.

As per the Calamity Relief Fund (CRF) guidelines, the family of the deceased is entitled to the Ex-gratia of Rs 1,00,000 (per deceased) along with an additional amount of Rs.1,00,000 announced by state government immediately to all the above mentioned families whose family members have died in the floods. Out of these 12 death cases, 11 deceased were Dalits.

The families of the deceased have not yet received their due compensation. This brings out the insensitivity of the administration in not clearing their rightful dues.

List of the deceased given below:

The reasons narrated by the respondents for not getting the entitlements:

- The unawareness about their right of entitlement to ex-gratia of Rs. 1,00,000 each as per the CRF guidelines and State government orders;
- Their impending hopes of receiving the entitlements from the authorities after having been enumerated in the damage assessment lists;
- The entanglements in fulfilling day to day needs that deters them from going for any prolonged actions of following up with the authorities. They merely rely on the officials to reach them with relief and entitlements;
- The expressed helplessness of the concerned authorities in cases where the dead bodies have gone untraceable;
- They being situated at interior locations might have kept the officials from visiting their village.

(Specific case studies and list of cases as annexure 3)

➤ No compensation to the injured and disabled by furious floods

There are two such cases in which the family members got injured and were rendered disabled. Their disability ranged between 40-70 per cent, and as per the CRF guidelines, they were entitled to a compensation of Rs. 35,000/ each. But these poor, hapless survivors have not received any kind of support from the authorities so far.

The details of the injured/disabled:

Sl.No.	Name of the injured	sex	Age	Caste	Village/Mandal/District
1	Dharmavaram Seelanna	F	70	SC (B) Madiga	Nasanoor, Vaddepalli Mandal, Mahaboobnagar
2	Gadumuru Esanna	M	60	SC (B) Madiga	Rajoli, Vaddepalli Mandal, Mahaboobnagar Dist.

Both the severely injured and thus disabled expressed their ignorance of the entitlements from the government and nor did the officials inform/support them in the same. The two are availing treatment in a private hospital in the absence of decent medical facilities in public hospitals. The two respondents have still not recovered from their injuries, while slogging for their livelihood. (For details see annexure 4)

The sick and injured during floods failed to seek proper medical attention in the government hospital due to over crowdedness at the hospital. Even injuries which required admission were treated as outpatient. Most of them have had to take treatment of serious injuries from private hospitals at their own cost, in the face of uncertainty over their future means of survival

➤ No compensation for loss of household goods, clothing and utensils

Families under the non compensated category:

Sl.NO.	Particulars	No. of Families
		SC		ST	BC	Min	OC	Total
		Mala	Madiga
1	Total families surveyed	107	722	34	223	24	25	1135

3	% families not received compensation.	50%	55%	29%	49%	58%	20%	51%

As per the CRF guidelines, each flood affected family that has lost all its household goods, clothing and utensils is entitled to a compensation of Rs.3000/-. Yet, 51per cent of the families are in non receipt of this reparation. The community wise percentages of families reveal the non receipt of compensation by more than 50% Dalit families.

The reasons narrated by the respondents for not getting the compensation are:

- False claims of entitlements by the ineligible people;
- Non enumeration of their names in the compensation list;
- Absence from the village during the enumeration while they were away fending for means of survival. (Individual profile of specific cases as annexure 5).

➤ Non receipt of compensation for the damaged houses

Sl.no	Particulars	No. of Families

5	% of families affected	80%	94%	68%	88%	87%	80%	91%

As per the CRF guidelines, the families that incurred severe damage of pucca houses are entitled to compensation of Rs. 5,000/-, while for those who suffered complete collapse of kutchha houses are entitled to Rs.10,000/- per house . But, the survey just exposed that of the total number of surveyed families that suffered both degrees of damage, 73 percent were SC families. More than 50% per cent have SC families did not receive their entitled compensation.

According to the DW-AP first survey findings, of the total houses damaged, 50 per cent belonged to Dalits. The above table shows that among the surveyed villages, more than half of the Dalit houses were damaged and have not received any compensation. This trend triggers several questions about the degree of exclusion taking place in the implementation of the relief and rehabilitation measures.

Parameter	SC	ST	BC	Muslim	OC
Affected families (%)	38	4	30	11	17
Loss of lives (no.)	27	3	11	4	4
Loss of houses (%)	50	0	33	7	10
Loss of crops (%)	27	0	30	5	39
Loss of cattle (milk cows and buffalos in %)	51	1	26	9	13
Loss of cattle (sheep in %)	44	0	40	6	9

Regarding the construction of new houses, the government is still in the process of identifying the 'safer locations' for shifting the locationally vulnerable people to the safe zones. The government wants to build new houses for the affected SCs on the marginal lands belonging to the petty landowners, BCs and SCs, while the land of the big landlords are not being considered 'worthy' of this noble action of building homes for the locationally vulnerable Dalits. On inviting the views of men and women on the notion of relocation, people expressed their unwillingness and anxiety because they would get displaced from their land holdings, so what if its meagre, while the women preferred it only to save the life of their children and family members.

It is worth mentioning here that 98 SC families were relocated from Ayyawaripally village to Chinambavi in Mehboobnagar district after the floods hit these Dalit hamlets. It is ironic that the AP government announced under the State Housing Corporation limited, announcement dated 19-10-'09, the names of villages and the no. of houses that had collapsed due to flood, but did not put the estimated number of houses collapsed in the village Ayyawaripally, from where these 98 SC families were uprooted and had sought shelter in Chinambavi. It is strange how in this entire list (available on the AP govt. website), this SC section has been left out completely for being given proper built houses, having provided temporary shelters to them In the name of rehabilitation. A Freudian slip! May be it was an 'unintended' miss out or a technical fault!

Reasons narrated by respondents for not receiving the compensation are:-

- Officials did not enumerate their names for compensation;
- They were away from the village in search of livelihood;
- The rich collided with the officials' and struck a good deal. They feel bureaucrats' chilling disregard is rooted in the inherent prejudice that those who live in huts and on the fringes do not deserve anything better;
- The authorities are not furnishing information on the reasons of non receipt of compensation (Detailed individual profile of specific cases as annexure 6)

➤ Non receipt of compensation for the loss of livestock

As per the Revenue Department (Disaster Management), the District Collectors were advised to arrange for immediate enumeration of house hold losses of livestock by constituting village level committees for arriving at factual figures. However, the survey findings below reveal the contrary.

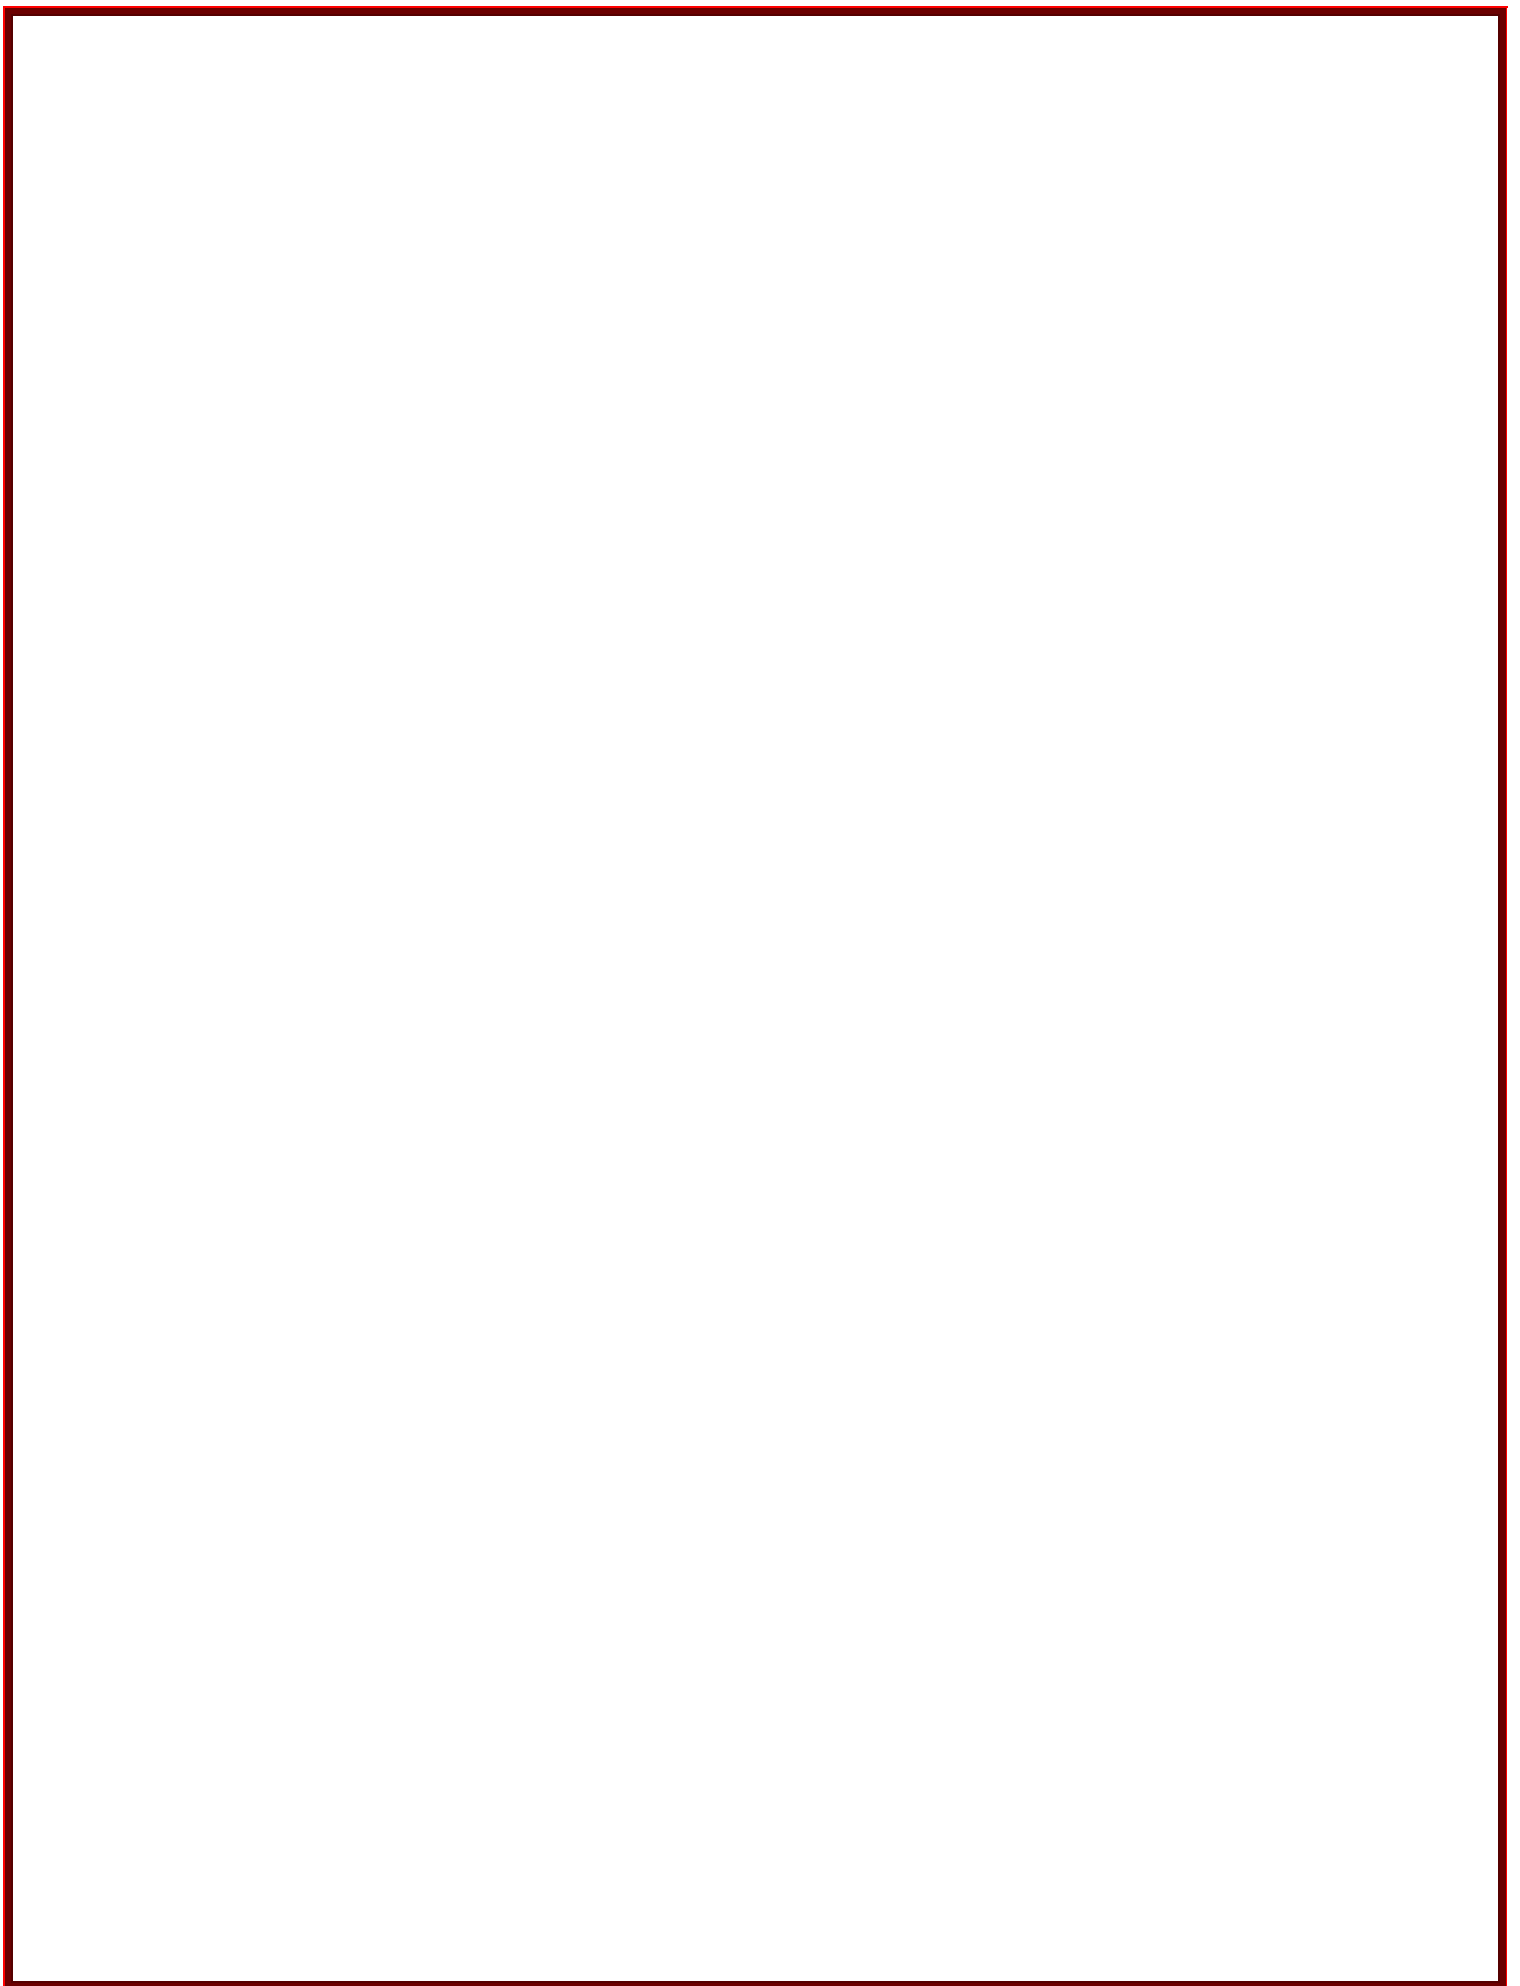

Sl.NO.	Particulars	No .of Families

4	% of affected families having lost their livestock	28%	35%	29%	25%	17%	16%	33%

Of the total number of respondents, 33% SC families responded to the question of non receipt of compensation for livestock. This could be supported by the earlier finding also, whereby, of the total number of families losing their livestock had 56 per cent Dalits.

Need we mention the worth of livestock in the livelihood of villagers, and here in the case of Dalits! By caring for milch and draught animals, they earn their square meal. Considering the value and need for livestock in the lives of Dalits, representations are made to the government to immediately compensate them as per the CRF guidelines and provide additional support through the concerned state government to re-establish their livestock and livelihood.

Reasons narrated by respondents for not receiving the compensation are:-

- The authorities visited them too late to enumerate the loss of livestock properly;
- They were not in the village during enumeration;
- Caught up in daily labour for sustenance that they were not able to follow up with the authorities (Detailed individual profile of specific cases as annexure 7)

➤ No compensation for crop loss and damage of agricultural land (both leased and owned)

The cyclonic rains in AP caused heavy damage to the standing agriculture crop in Kurnool, Mahaboobnagar, Krishna, Guntur, Nalgonda, Rangareddy, Srikakulam, Kadapa and Vizianagaram. Total estimated loss in production for Agriculture crops is 9.01 lakh tones with a monetary loss of Rs. 857.09 crores.

4	% of the affected families	24%	24%	3%	36%	45%	40%	27%

As per the Revenue Department (Disaster Management), the District Collectors were advised to arrange compensation to the affected farmers as per norms prescribed in G.O.Ms.No 24, Revenue (DM I) Dept dated 8-10-2009.

However, of the 1135 respondents, 299 respondents have not received compensation or input subsidy for crop loss and agricultural land made unusable by the flood waters due to silt deposits or other reasons. The small and marginal land holders are dispossessed of their meagre land possessions which have caused huge cumulative losses. Of these 299 respondents, 200 respondents belong to the SC/ST communities.

Reasons narrated by respondents for not receiving the compensation are:-

- The officials have not visited their village to estimate crop loss or land loss;
- They were not aware about their entitlements for the said loss;
- They didn't know the concerned authority with whom they should pursue the matter (some of them even travelled to the district headquarters to meet the Collector to receive their compensation);
- They had migrated in search of livelihood and therefore, missed being enumerated (Detailed individual profile of specific cases as annexure 8)

➤ No compensation for the loss of fishing boats and nets

	% of families affected	14%	5.4%		2%1	9%

83 families in Kurnool and Mahaboobnagar districts for whom fishing is the livelihood are still waiting to be compensated for the loss of boats and nets. The fishing community usually belongs to the Backward Castes. When the floods came, these families were the first to be affected by flood waters when they were out for fishing. It's disheartening to see the hypocrisy of the state authorities that could not compensate even the lesser number of fishing families that lost their boats and nets in both the districts. At least these few of these families could have been compensated at the earliest.

Reasons narrated by respondents for not receiving the compensation are:-

1. The immediate livelihood need had pushed them into waters again and since their habitats were in very low lying areas, they didn't know when the officials had visited their village;
2. They were completely depending upon the fisheries department and had not received any compensation (Details as annexure 9)

The above CRF guidelines would aid us in constantly reviewing the promises and provisions made for flood victims and how the reality demystifies these norms.

VI. Inadequacies of basic amenities at temporary shelters & plight of women and children

4	% of families not provided toilet facility	25%	50%	47%	32%	33%	32%	44%

Of the 1135 respondents, 499 respondents expressed that women have suffered for lack proper sanitation facilities. Of this, 391 respondents belong to the SC/ST communities. The women, more so, the pregnant women faced unthinkable pain and hardships during floods. Due to the complete disruption of transportation system, it became unspeakably difficult for them to access any emergency service or to seek medical aid for child delivery. Even after the floods, when all services should have been restored, the survey exposed the dysfunctional of the Anganwadi centres. ANM visits hardly once in a month and health services are not run properly and adequately catering to the affected people. In the name of supplementary nutrition under ICDS, the pregnant and lactating women get a handful of rice or readymade food packets ones a week or even after month/s. There are no vaccination facilities for the women and children.

VII. Rehabilitation?

a. Failure of NREGA in ensuring livelihood to the affected

The respondents reported that initially for some days the victims were given the task of clearing the slush and debris after floods, but then they have not been disbursed their wages in return for their labour. According to the village sarpanch (village head) flood relief budget was not utilised or disbursed sufficiently due to political interference even though money was allocated, and it was diverted to other flood affected areas where the sarpanches hailed from non-dalit communities.

As per the survey monitoring visit by NDW and DW-AP representatives to a village named Nidzuru, there is pressure to change NREGA field assistant who is a dalit, citing the reason that he is only helping dalits

The issue of employment generation during disaster management is of paramount importance as it alone could restore normalcy to the lives of the affected communities. However, it is true that the achievements of the NREGA have been uneven. A look at the list of the families in the annexure shows that most of the SC men have not been issued job cards. Having a Job Card is the first step to demand employment and claim wages or unemployment allowance if job is not provided within the stipulated time frame. However, the trend is such that the scheduled caste dominated states have relatively low number of job cards for the SC families.⁴

The failure to generate work for these people leads to the increase of migration. This causes the Dalit women and children also to take up whatever little private work available to supplement their income, such as engaging in beedi making task. Women and children take to work with tobacco leaves for which they are earn as low as only Rs. 2/- a day. Therefore, exposing themselves to severe health risks for just Rs. 2. As many number of tobacco garlands they make and supply to the owner (who provides them with tobacco leaves), the more their wages get supplemented in multiples of 2. The children, especially girls, join in this work when they come home from school/hostel.

The heavy late rains may have brought relief to some regions in AP in terms of fodder, and drinking water. But they also devastate the short duration crops that people have sown. So this village and its neighbours are heavily NREGA dependent. In Anantapur district for instance, we have forests without trees. The regeneration of those could be a major work. In zones like these, rain-fed horticulture development would help. And in fact, we should be creating work for landless and small farmers round the year. We need very strict enforcement of priorities that demand Dalit and Adivasi lands be the first to benefit.⁵

Reasons narrated by people for not getting work:-

- No official approached them for giving work;
- The work offered included only the clearing of debris and cleaning of slush at the affected places where only a few could work;
- The dominant castes received the work that was generated (Details as annexure 10)

- Of the 22 villages in Kurnool, where the drinking water pipelines had broken, 14 villages still remain with the broken pipelines. In Mahaboobnagar district, out of 24 villages, 9 villages give the same picture. Roads and communications lines to Kurnool were badly affected. Almost 80 percent of the Kurnool town (district headquarters) was under water. Five months now and no road repair work has been undertaken in 11 of the 21 villages that requires construction of the roads. In Mahaboobnagar also, 15 out of 28 villages had the similar problem.

- In the villages surveyed in Mahaboobnagar District, 15 Anganwadi centres that were damaged in floods are still unattended and continue to remain in the same vandalised conditions. Due to the disruption in Anganwadi centres in these 15 villages, children and pregnant women are facing difficulties. (List of villages as annexure 11)

VIII. Follow up Suggestions

1. Organise district level consultations with the civil society organisations and Dalit organisations to share the finding of the report;
2. Identify activists, leaders and volunteers who could take the responsibilities of following up the specific cases with the concerned authorities at the local level and assist the affected people in securing their entitlement;
3. Organise state level consultation with the partner organisations to share the findings and evolve an advocacy strategy of follow-up on the findings;
4. On behalf of DW-AP represent petitions, complaints of the affected and excluded people to the concerned authorities at the state level with copies to the concerned authorities at district and mandal levels;
5. Organize a state and district level press meet to release the findings of the survey;
6. Share the report with all the concerned departments and seek their support in the follow up of the findings;
7. Explore possibilities of legal recourse for providing relief and rehabilitation entitlements to the affected;
8. Make list of persons who have been discriminated against, quantify the discrimination and the official responsible for the discrimination along with the details of the official (Name, designation, e-mail ID, Mobile No., etc.), name of the district level senior officer (such as Collector or SP) along with details. All these can be pooled together Mandalwise and the same submitted to the concerned Statelevel officials for action as well as to Court as PIL, compensation, etc., publicity through the media and pressure for action through mail, calls etc. (This is replicable in other areas of work: NREGA, Atrocities, etc.).
9. Demand action on corrupt officials under the Prevention of Atrocities Act, 1989. The above list will be useful for this. Cases can be filed collectively in courts at the District Level. DBSU and other organisations to back this action.

10. Enthuse Dalit Bahujan Shramik Union (DBSU) to promote community based sustainable disaster management interventions in both the districts through :-

- Organizing the affected community people into membership based sanghas at village level;
- Orienting them about the CRF guidelines and the procedures followed in addressing their issues;
- Forming local committees at village level that would further follow up the issues;
- Capacitating these committees with the know-how of addressing their issues through village level meetings;
- Forming local committee at block level for continuous follow up on the issues with the block level authorities and proper coordination through block level meetings;
- Capacitating these committees with knowledge that would help them in perusing the issues, and further working on the opportunities for their development while continuing to fight for protection of Dalits rights;
- Filing of mass applications for providing work under the Employment Guarantee Scheme to the Dalits;
- Improving the participation of members in the village gram sabhas because it is the primary unit for availing the entitlements.
- Organising the youth (boys and girls) to establish their leadership in taking up community issues;
- Laying special focus on the land issues of the affected community and further protecting and working for securing land holding for the landless labourers;
- Take up issues of trauma for counselling and psychological healing;
- Establishing Multi-dimensional counselling centres in the District Mandals so that DBSU and other groups of DW-AP can coordinate work with dalits, women, children and all affected people from here.

IX. Recommendations to the concerned authorities

- Special IAS officer should be appointed for strengthening the present administration system for speedy justice to the flood affected victims within a stipulated time frame. Both the districts have been identified by the government as flood prone districts.
- The government should appoint a committee to look into the matter to investigate the reasons as to why Dalits were most badly affected in the floods; why there was a delay in providing relief and rehabilitation to the Dalits and thereby, recommend measures to address and prevent caste based exclusion in disaster management in future.
- The concerned authorities found guilty of discriminatory practices toward the dalits during floods should be penalised under the SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act 1989.
- The affected people (caste wise representation) should be made the stakeholders of the rehabilitation process so that the need based rehabilitation measures could be taken up effectively and inclusively.
- The housing construction and allocation should be done with a time bound action plan with adequate budget allocations at disposal.
- The concerned departments, viz. the Agriculture department, the Fisheries department and the Animal Husbandry department should provide immediate compensation to the affected families.
- The list of beneficiaries should be made available on the state government's website for establishing transparency.
- Provision should be made for every victim to register his complaint on the government website and getting a receipt for the same and assurance of relief within the prescribed time frame. (Similar to what we had been proposing with regard to registration of employees under the minimum wages Act, 1948)
- The death cases that resulted from the floods should be compensated with Rs.2 lakh ex-gratia to the families of the deceased as announced by the Government immediately.
- The NREGS department should increase the number of days to 365 as mandatory in the flood affected areas for giving secure livelihood subsistence for sustained future to the affected families.

- The land of the affected SC/ST families, apart from the CRF compensation, should be brought under CLDP as mandatory programme for further development.
- The government should generate adequate information on health related issues as its programme under disaster management.
- The Department of Women and Child Development should immediately supply the anganwadi centres with the material required and oversee the proper functioning of the centres.
- Land allocation for housing should be made by the government and the land of small and marginal farmers should not be obtained by force or by persuasion for the construction of houses unless alternate land is made available and doubling their compensation.

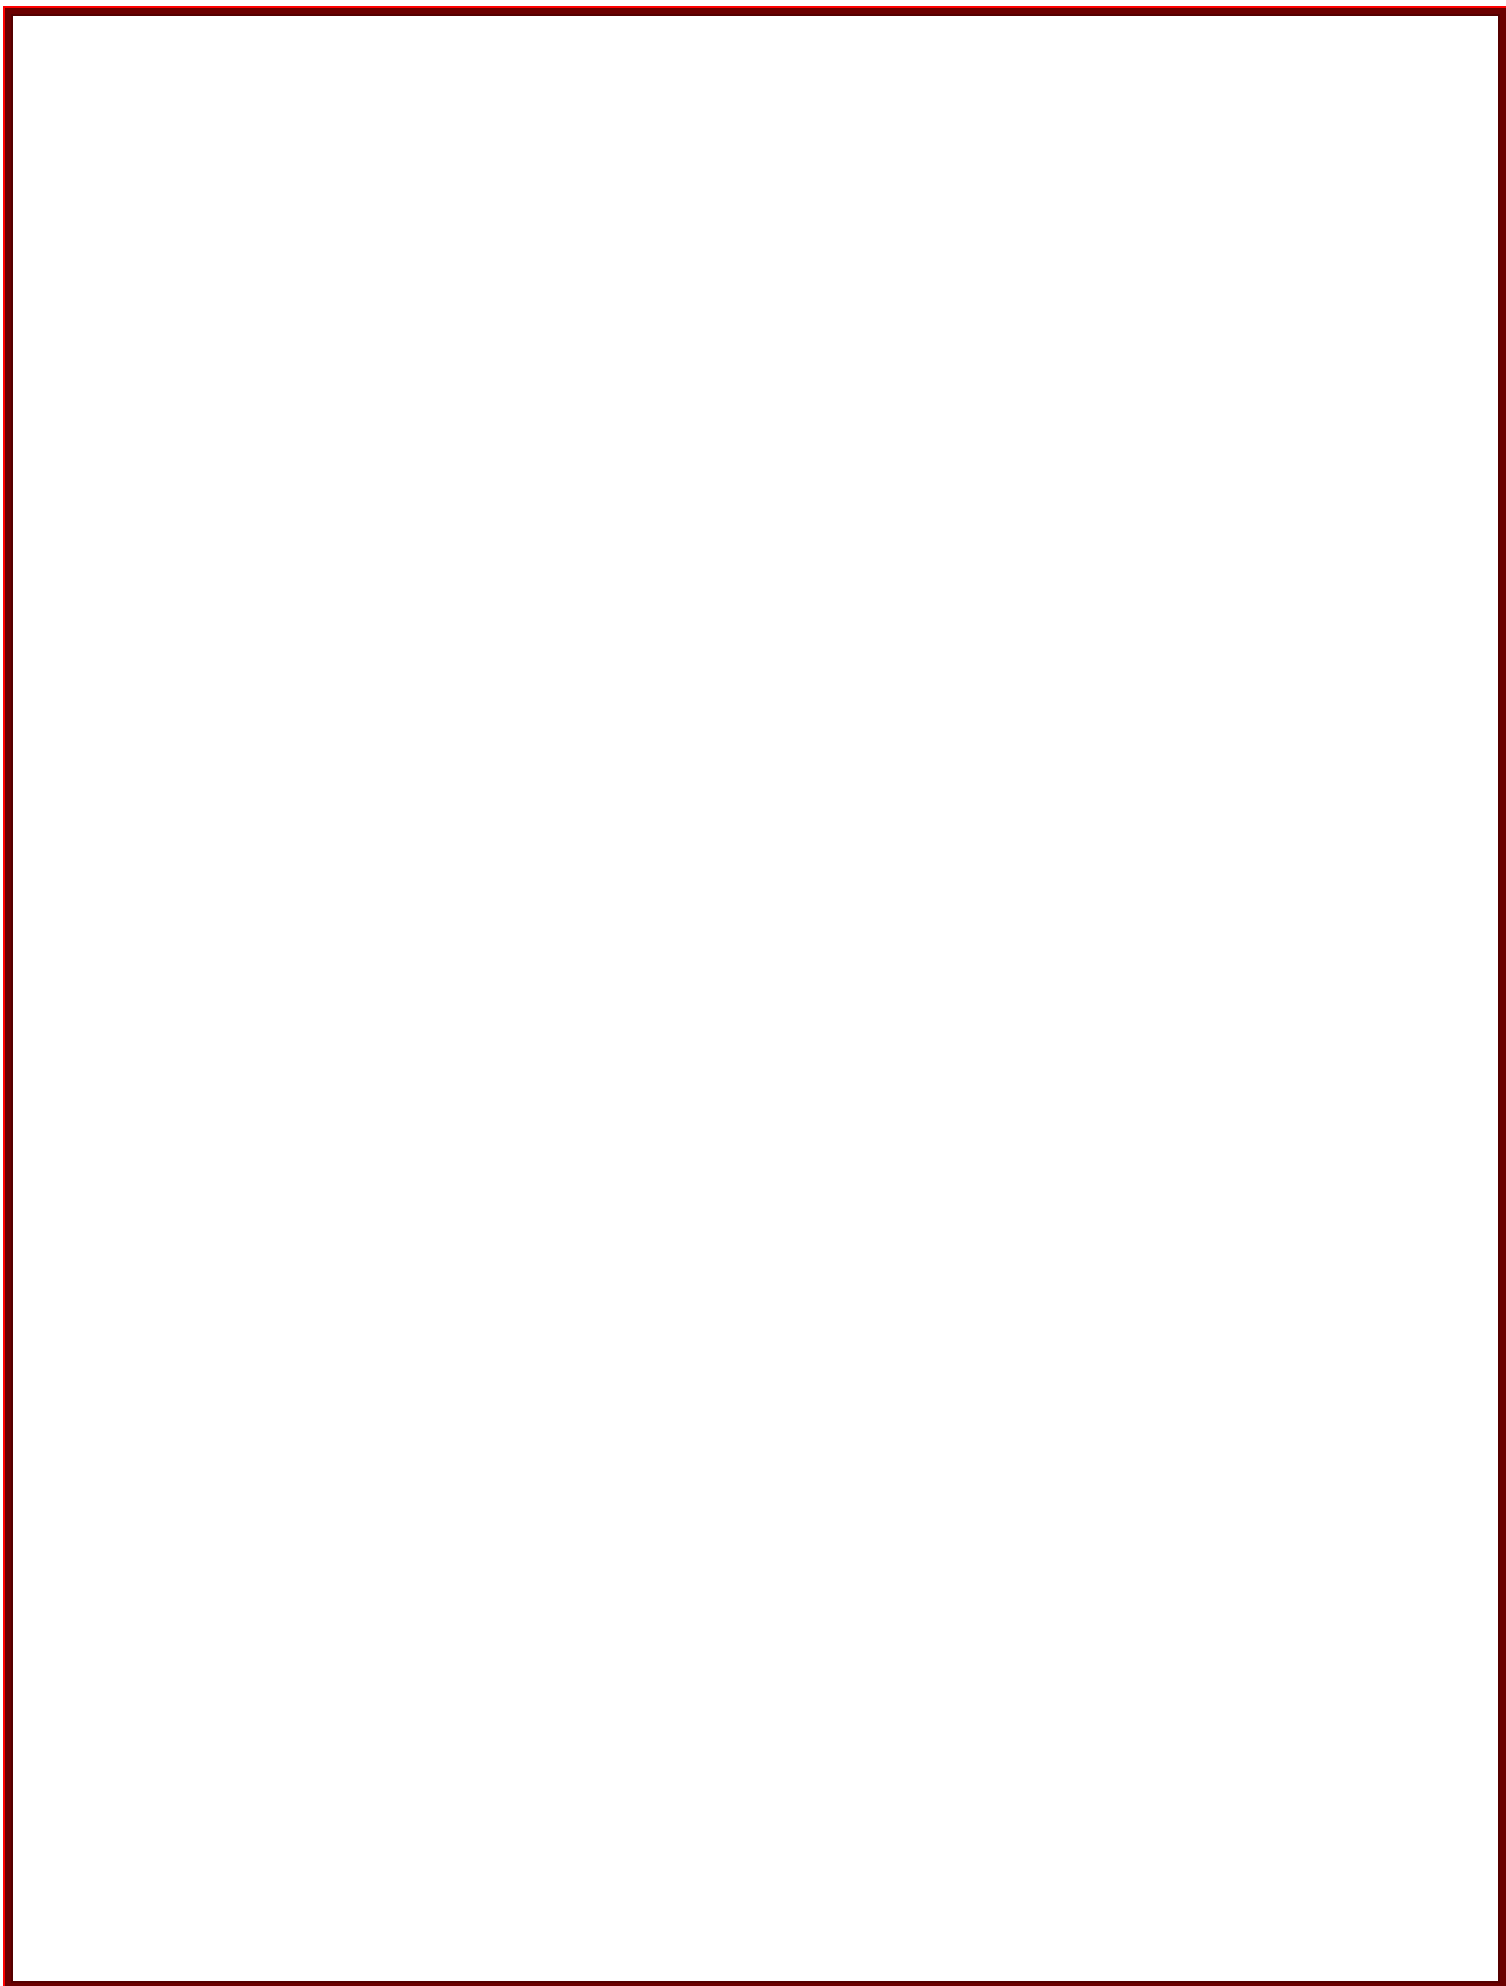

X. Conclusion

Disasters will never stop occurring. Nobody can warrant its non-occurrence. Manageable hazards when unidentified and left loose, turn into national disasters, swallowing away several lives. This study is an attempt to unearth the appalling situations of the marginalised sections, vulnerable to these disasters, and the perhaps the 'chosen' ones by disasters.

In the context of floods, it is not impossible to deal with the hazards that lead to floods (which are actually caused by man-made activities) and accordingly map the vulnerable communities and habitations for strategic intervention. Is anything non doable for the state and national governments for protecting the lives of their citizens? So what if they are the Dalits or schedule tribes or minorities. The question here is to identify flood prone zones through social and vulnerability mapping that covers all these hamlets and establish such effective and reliable early warning systems that in first place, would give some time to the Dalits and other minorities living in uninhabitable low lying areas, to look for some safer place.

However, the efforts should not end here. This study reveals how caste has been playing the dirty game in segregating Dalits from the immediate relief and rehabilitation schemes of the government. Compensations are not made to them. Officials don't visit their areas. So, what about the entitlements of Dalits? First of all, Dalits are the citizens of this biggest egalitarian country in the world. The government has certain obligations towards the life, health and well being of its citizens. By extending the relief and rehabilitation packages to them in times of disasters that are later declared national disasters depending on the intensity and destruction, the state does not do any special favours of these victims. A lot of relief material flows in from every part of the country and world in different forms for them, not having the tag of which section should be served out of it.

The government has to really work out principles and policies of equal and inclusive treatment to all. The accomplishment of the study leads to the beginning of further work strategies with the government and civil society organisations, to dwell into action for the welfare and rights of the deprived beings. The work proceeds from this point on.

XI. ANNEXURES

ANNEXURE-I

Dalit Watch AP For Relief and Rehabilitation with Dignity

Household Survey of affected families who have not received/partially received relief and rehabilitation.

Capacity Building Workshop to Volunteers

20, 21 Feb 2010, Don Bosco Ramanthapur, Hyderabad

The work shop started with garlanding of Dr.B.R.Ambedkar photograph by Mr. Nandagopal and Fr.TD John amid the slogans of "sad istham Ambedkar Asayalanu Sadistham'.....'johar Dr.BR Ambekdar Johar".

Introductory session by Fr.TD. John

Fr. TD shared that the vulnerable Dalit people who are fighting for their rights at grass root are the main stakeholders and leaders in their struggle. And when we are intervening we should see that this leadership realizes their potential and moves in manner in which the movement succeeds. This resultants people's ownership and partnership and responsibility in leading the movement. The greater the peoples partnership in the movement the greater the success of the movement.

He briefly explained the importance of the present survey of the flood affected dalits and the marginalized victims. The survey that has take up previously has thrown up that discrimination against dalits is taking place in rescue and relief operation of the govt. in reaching out to the flood affected victims. 50% of the affected people belong to Dalit community. When we met Sri. Raju. Principal Secretary to CM of AP. He acknowledge the fact about discrimination and suggested to do survey again and bring to his notice the information about flood affected victims not receiving rehabilitation measures and especially in M'nagar and Kurnool districts. And the emergence of such training to volunteers in carrying out the survey. The Dalit Watch report copy was given each one.

The present situation of the flood affected victims – Session by Nandagopal

Mr. Nandagopal welcomed the participants and thanked all them for coming from different locations to under take this important task. He also shared that among Sakshi volunteers from Kurnool districts 5 were selected and from DBSU –AP M'Nagar district 5 were selected after thorough considerations. He asked them were there any one from the affected families. The volunteers from the Kurnool are from the affected families and the volunteers from M'Nagar have gone to the flood affected places in helping the victims during the time of calamity.

Group Exercise:

The 10 volunteers were divided into two groups of their respective district and were asked to discuss among them about what do they see, here and read about the present plight of the flood affected dalit victims for 15 min. and share it in the larger group.

The points emerged from their presentations.

Mahaboob Nagar - Group

The Dalits affected and lost their :-

With this experience they are divested and are in a state of stress and are in trauma in thinking about their lives and how they will recoup themselves.

Kurnool - Group

- During relief operation by the govt. the officials first met the upper caste land lords and gave relief to only those families suggested by them.
- Dalits who lost their sheep and cattle have not got any compensation
- Affected victims are migrating for other places in search of work, as work is not available in the villages.
- The money distributed by the Authorities as per the govt. norms in reaching all the dalits. There is lot of corruptions.

- In Vempata village the upper caste landlords saw that the entire relief material and compensation amount is diverted to other villages where upper caste are there.
- In the name of Dalits – upper caste have taken compensation
- Forced dalits to sign and upper caste have taken the compensations
- Still the families who lost their loved ones have not received compensation.
- The compensation announced by govt. for the completely destroyed houses Rs.8,000/- but the officials have given them only rs.4000/-
- The local upper caste people are playing the role middle man.

Mr. Nandagopal summing up the presentations said the Mahaboob Nagar group has come out with the flood impact and the situation of Dalits and the Kurnool group has come out with the plight of Dalits and the discrimination that is taking place against dalits in received the compensations and relief material. He shared that the relief and rehabilitation of the flood affected victims is their right. The Indian government in the year 2004 has enacted the Disaster Management Act and under this Acts all the flood affected victims are entitled to receive proper compensation against their loss. The flood affected victims are not receiving the relief and rehabilitation measures as Charity but they are receiving it as their right and the government is responsible in reaching out to the victims of the flood.

What are their rights which the govt. has to provide – Leslie shared the following

- Temporary Shelters
- Provide food and Drinking water
- Provide Clothing and Household Utensils
- Provide Rations
- Provide work
- Give education to children
- Provide housing
- Compensation to crop loss
- Compensation if land is affected
- Compensation for loss of livestock
- Compensation to tools and working gear
- Compensation to fisherman for loss of their boats and nets
- Restoring affected village amenities like drinking water facility, road, street lights, sewerage clearing and clearing of debris immediately
- Health services continue

- Providing text books and note books to children – State govt.
- Taking care of the special needs of the women, old, and children
- And various departments of the government's gets into action immediately, GO's released, and budgets are sanctioned and the officials intervene in giving the entitlements to the affected people.

The Act says that “there should not be any discrimination based on religion, gender, caste, language etc. during rescue, relief and Rehabilitation measures”.

People are not being aware of this, and they are not having the courage to ask for their relief and rehabilitation as a Right.

The volunteers became aware of the Act and going through the respective GOs and their enthusiasm to go about survey immediately was evident in their participation.

Exercise on Filling up the survey questionnaire 1. Individual affected Family 2.Village amenities situation – Session by Leslie

The questionnaire was shared with the volunteers and they were asked to go through the questionnaire for about 15 min to understand the questionnaire. Two volunteers were grouped, and one person asks the questions and fills up the forms and other will respond as a flood affected victim.

The volunteers went through the exercise and could completely understood how fill up the questionnaire and suggested a few changes which finalized before printing the formats.

Session on Follow up Activity after the survey and what are the possibilities – by Fr. TD John

Fr. TD shared that once the victims become aware of their rights about relief and rehabilitation measures their confidence will increase in asking the govt. and getting the entitlement realized. But they need to be organized in proper way. The volunteers responded that during the survey identifying active youth who gain knowledge about the govt. act and through the organizing the affected people into peoples Sanghas and continually capacitating their leadership will help the people in getting their rights. This will enhance their confidence to further continue to take up righted violations issues in their own village. Fr. TD further added that the slogan of Dr.BR.Ambedkar “Educate-----organize-----Struggle” can be realized, if we identify from within the community leaders who are capable of educating the people with right information, within the people there will be people who are skilled in organizing the community as a Sangha and within the people there will be some one who lead a struggle. So during the survey its also important to see that community are organized so that the follow up efforts are carried out by themselves and Sakshi, human rights watch and DBSU can intervene in strengthening their follow up action. Its important to increase the knowledge of these leaders about their Rights and Entitlements and who the authority is responsible for the same.
